Asian Pacific Rim Foundation

Mission Statement

The Foundation was established in 1998 to:

- 1) provide grants, funding and scholarships to “organizations” that provide services to the Asian Pacific Islander communities in the Sacramento region,
- 2) to broaden the understanding of the heritage, influences and contributions of the Asian Pacific Islander communities,
- 3) to promote and support Asian Pacific Islander cultural, educational, and community programs and events, and
- 4) to financially aid local organizations with Asian Pacific Islander youth and senior programs.

Priorities for Awards Are:

Community Project

1. To broaden understanding of the heritage, influence and contribution of the Asian Pacific Islanders communities.
2. To promote and preserve Asian Pacific Islanders’ culture, encourage education and respond to community needs.
3. To benefit, serve and help Asian Pacific Island youths, adults and seniors.

Scholarship Program

1. To encourage youths in the community to respect and value education, beyond high school and basic baccalaureate degree education.
2. To support young men and women who are interested in continuing with higher education.
3. To adopt priorities, evaluate applicants with fair standards, which apply fairly to each applicant.
